BioOne Complete: An Investment in Sustainable Scholarly Communications

Our Mission

BioOne sees sustainable scholarly publishing as an inherently collaborative enterprise connecting authors, nonprofit publishers, academic institutions, research libraries, and research funders in the common goal of maximizing access to critical research.

Since BioOne's founding, our flagship BioOne Complete aggregation model has successfully kept subscription fees affordable for libraries while returning more than $68M to participating nonprofit and society publishers. This reinvestment of precious library funds enables our publishing partners to remain independent and sustain their critical research communities. Enduring library support has also allowed us to offer BioOne Complete at no cost to researchers in more than 80 countries via philanthropic programs like Research4Life.
